

RAPID WORK BY ACTRESS.

Gets Part, Leaves It and Plays It All in Two Hours.

After the matinee at the Knickerbocker Theatre yesterday afternoon Miss Helen Luttrell, who plays the part of Dorothy Ainsley with Julian Eltinge in "The Crinoline Girl," became ill, and it was found she would be unable to resume her role at the evening performance. As there was no understudy for the part, the offices of A. H. Woods immediately became busy over the telephone in a search for some one to replace Miss Luttrell, with the result that Miss Grace Coburn was engaged at 5.30, received a copy of her part at 6 o'clock and played the role at 8 P. M. without missing a word.

At the conclusion of the play the entire company congratulated the young actress on what is something of a technical feat.

"TIZ" FIXED MY SORE, TIRED FEET

"O Girls! Don't have puff-ed-up, burning, sweaty feet or corns."

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, hot, smelly, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "TIZ".

"TIZ" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet; "TIZ" is magical; "TIZ" is grand; "TIZ" will cure your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired. Think of it, no more foot misery; no more burning corns, callouses or bunions.

Get a 25-cent box at any drug store or department store, and get instant relief. Get a whole year's foot relief for only 25 cents. Think of it!

42-YEAR FERRYBOAT IS STILL IN THE RING; HAS KNOCKOUT PUNCH

Ancient Ferry Craft Union Smashes a Big Tug and Goes On Her Way.

A powerful ebb tide met the ferryboat Union as she left Fulton street, Manhattan, for Fulton street, Brooklyn, on her 5.15 P. M. trip yesterday, and swept her into the stern of the tugboat J. J. McGuire, which was tied to the end of Pier No. 16.

There was a tremendous crashing and splitting as the entire stern of the big tug and her solid towing bits were carried away.

The ferryboat was crowded with Brooklynites. Many saw the collision coming and grabbed at supports, but even then some were knocked down.

Nine of the ten men of the tug, in command of Capt. Bernard Young, were out of harm's way, but James Stringer, a fireman of Verplanck, N. Y., who was in the furnace room, was hurled against a bulkhead and much bruised. He went ashore.

After the bump the Union, not much damaged, got on her course again and finished her trip.

The sternless tug, which belongs to the Shamrock Towing Company of No. 624 West Fifty-second street, was towed by the Patrick McGuire to the Tietjen & Lang drydock, Hoboken, for repairs.

By the way, the Union is forty-two years old.

ORDERED OFF SOFA, PET DOG ATTACKS HER

Pastor's Daughter Badly Bitten in Her Riverside Home—To Examine Animal for Rabies.

Max, a bulldog which for the past ten years has been a pet in the family of the Rev. Gustav A. Carstensen, pastor of Christ Episcopal Church in Riverside, sauntered into the parlor of the rectory last night and got on the sofa.

Miss Grace, daughter of the pastor, ordered the dog down. He didn't move and she tried to move him. Instantly the old pet bit her severely on the left wrist.

The Rev. Mr. Carstensen called the police and asked that Max be shot. The police refused, saying the dog should be turned over to the Board of Health and examined for symptoms of rabies. Max then was made a prisoner in the house. The Board of Health will get him to-day.

U. S. NEEDS DIPLOMATS FOR POSTS IN HAYTI AND SAN DOMINGO

One Minister Resigns, Another Expected to Follow—Both Politicians.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The resignation of Madison R. Smith, American Minister to Hayti, which was received by the State Department to-day, probably will be followed by the resignation of James M. Sullivan, the American Minister to Santo Domingo.

Since Secretary Bryan sent Smith to Hayti and Sullivan to Santo Domingo the two countries have been in a ferment. Many reports which have come to Washington recently convinced the department that it would be necessary to put a couple of diplomats of experience in the posts held by those two politicians.

The Smith resignation arrived in Washington almost simultaneously with the announcement that Great Britain had laid an ultimatum before the Haytian Government demanding the immediate payment of a claim of $25,000. The ultimatum was accompanied by a British gunboat.

The State Department was advised late yesterday unofficially that Great Britain withdrew the ultimatum when the National Bank of Hayti raised the money to pay the claim.

Mr. Bryan has been advised that Minister Sullivan, formerly attorney for "Bald Jack" Rose, has been extremely friendly to the present dictator of Hayti, Provisional President Bordas, who took the Government last year. It is understood that the department has resented Mr. Sullivan's attitude toward Bordas because it is not in line with the general Latin-American policy of attempting to establish free government.

SHEEDY PAINTINGS GO AT BARGAIN PRICES

"Nymphs and Satyr," Which the Gambler Valued at $12,000, Brings Only $200 at Auction.

Twenty-one of the forty-nine paintings left in the art shop of Patrick P. Sheedy, the gambler, when he died in December, 1909, were sold at auction last night in the Silo Galleries at Forty-fifth street and Fifth avenue. They had been held by Sheedy at $20,000 or more. Last night's bidders scaled his estimates by a large percentage.

The picture he prized most highly was "Nymphs and Satyr," a sumptuous product of the Munich school, by J. Schaeper. Sheedy's price for it was $12,000. S. Leopold bought it last night for $200. Zatkas's "Four Seasons," each subject covering a canvas 42 by 20 inches and brilliantly treated, was sold to H. Van Brink for $200.

"Cupid's Dance," by Schaeper, brought $100, and "Pet Bird," an attractive figure subject, brought $75. The remainder of the Sheedy paintings will be sold to-night.
